

For Immediate Release

Wingate Financial Group Selected as a 2011 Boston Five Star Wealth Manager

Lexington, MA, Feb. 2, 2011 – Wingate Financial Group is pleased to announce that Five Star Professional has named Arthur von der Linden, Jeff White, Rich Hayes, Matt Lasker, John Biebel and Carol Khouri as recipients of the 2011 Five Star Wealth Manager Award. This is the second year that Wingate has received this honor. The award winners appear in a special section in the February issue of Boston magazine.

For 25 years, Wingate Financial Group has been providing investment management and financial planning services for individuals, families and organizations. They are located in Lexington, MA.

Five Star Professional partnered with Boston magazine to conduct research to identify a select group of wealth managers who are exceptional in both their ability and their commitment to overall client satisfaction. Fewer than three percent of the more than 20,000 wealth managers in the Boston area were selected.

Five Star Professional conducts research with consumers, as well as industry peers and leaders, to identify service professionals who score highest in overall satisfaction. Five Star Professional was founded in 2005 and is based in Minneapolis.

